- Spray and flooding on roads probably making journey times longer
- Bus and train services probably affected with journey times taking longer
- Flooding of a few homes and businesses is possible

Further details

Periods of rain from Storm Agnes will make for a wet day for parts of Northern Ireland. Some areas will see 20-30 mm of rain within a few hours as the storm pushes northeast across the country, whilst some parts of the Mourne and Sperrins may catch up to around 40-50 mm.

Leaf fall and other debris from strong winds may block some drains, leading to an increased risk of flooding in a few spots.

 Medium likelihood of low impacts
